

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Circle the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

As the time to leave approached, Kat checked her watch with increased frequency/frequecy. After looking at the map several times, she felt confidant/confident about which way to head.

2. Draw lines to show which type of adverbial is underlined in each sentence.

Impatiently , Kat kept checking her watch.	adverbial of place
A couple of minutes later , another soldier appeared round a bend in the road.	adverbial of manner
And there, straight in front of her , was the Vascombe Bridge.	adverbial of time

3. Insert a semicolon to mark the boundary between the two clauses in the sentence below.

Kat checked that all the equipment was in order she needed to make sure that everything was there.

4. Which two of the following sentences are grammatically correct? Tick two boxes.

The two men hugged each other as if they was long lost brothers.
The tools and gadgets were totally central to every move.
A soldier was walking round a bend and approached the hut.
Kat were beginning to think that time was standing still.

5. Rewrite the following sentence so that it is in the past perfect tense.

She went slowly into the first wood and ran into the second wood.