

Code of conduct for remote learning

All staff, pupils and parents using video communication must:

- Communicate in groups – one-to-one sessions are only carried out where necessary.
- Ensure as far as is possible they have a stable connection to avoid disruption to the learning
- Wear suitable clothing – this includes others in their household.
- Position cameras in a way that only headshots can be seen and always remain aware that they are visible.
- Be situated in a suitable 'public' living area within the home with an appropriate background – 'private' living areas within the home are not permitted during video communication.
- Use appropriate language – this includes others in their household.
- Maintain the standard of behaviour expected in school.
- Use the necessary equipment and computer programs as intended.
- Not record, store, or distribute video material without permission.
