

Chapter Sequencing

Put these events in the order in which they happened in the story, numbering them from 1 to 5. The first one has been done for you.

A messenger reported that Roman villas were being ransacked and burned.

There was a growing sense of unease in Camulodunum.

The Romans began to prepare to defend the city.

Boudica and her people arrived at the edge of the city, ready to attack.

A distant rumble was heard in the air by some people working on the new temple.

1