What is the book about?

This gripping fantasy is about the magical and often unpredictable land of Narnia (a secret world found in the back of a wardrobe!).

Set during World War 2, a family of 4 children (Peter, Lucy, Edmund and Susan) are sent to a grand manor as evacuees. In their boredom, whilst playing hide and seek, this mysterious world is discovered in the back of a wardrobe and then the adventure truly begins. With repulsive villains, such as the white witch and exciting heroes, such as Aslan the lion, this book explores themes of good vs evil, love vs hate and anger vs forgiveness.

Who would this book be suitable for? Age/interests

I think this book would be suitable for Year 4 children and upwards. Whilst the storyline might excite children of all ages, there are some complex words that they might not understand.

It will highly interest you if you love fantasy, magical creatures and thrilling adventure.

Would you/would you not recommend the book? Why?

I would highly recommend this book because it gripped me from start to finish – I couldn't put it down!

The main characters are highly loveable, you find you start to deeply care for them and are desperate to find how the tale ends.

It also got me thinking about the meaning of friendship too!
