

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Circle the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Kat had a feeling that the mission could go horribly/horribly wrong because it seemed incredibly/incredibly difficult and dangerous. Presumably/presumably, her parents would be informed that she was heading to France.

2. Complete these sentences using which, that or who.

The people running the weekend were looking for teenagers _____ were feisty and determined.

Oater was talking to Kat whilst on board a plane, _____ was a Dakota.

Kat was instructed to blow up the bridge _____ was guarded by German soldiers.

3. Complete the sentences below with suitable adverbs.

Kat was feeling _____ nervous about the mission.

Oater was _____ confident that the right person had been chosen to complete the mission.

4. Complete the sentence below with an adverbial of time. Write your answer in the box.

_____, they were flying towards France.

5. Insert a pair of commas to clarify the sentence below.

Oater pointing at several items began to explain how to use explosives.